C-M CARLSSON

The experienced and talented pianobar artist

Carl-Magnus »C-M« Carlsson is one of Sweden's most beloved and respected pianobar artist. He has also participated on Agneta Fältskog's solo album »My Coloring Book« and performed at several TV shows.

C-M's repertoire contains everything from soft jazz standards and ballads to rock'n roll and pop hits. He is a master considering creating the perfect atmosphere around the grand piano and the repertoire is adjusted according to requests and wishes from his audience. Now and then famous artists like Björn Skifs and Sanne Salomonsen, join C-M behind the grand piano for a spontaneous jam session. Another remarkable proof of C-M's extraordinary musical talent is when Steve Lukather from Toto comes up to C-M with the words; »Your left hand is killing me«.

After several requests from his fans, C-M's first solo album »The Pianobar Collection« was released in 2006. With a warm, deep voice and an exceptional way of handling the grand piano as well as the keyboard, C-M delivers his own wonderful versions of some of the most popular songs like Billy Joel's »Piano Man« and Beatles »Let It Be«.
